A residence of rare scale and sophistication, this home blends modern luxury with timeless comfort because it has been thoughtfully updated and impeccably maintained. From the moment you enter, the home's scale and sophistication make a statement. On the main floor, the fully renovated chef's kitchen commands attention with premium appliances and refined finishes. Seamless indoor-outdoor living unfolds onto a covered porch and open deck overlooking a large, private yard. The upper level features a generous primary suite with a spa-quality bath enhanced by heated floors and serene vistas. Additional bedrooms share the same level for convenience and flow and have renovated baths and large closets. The expansive lower level suite adds versatility by offering the perfect setting for guests, a private studio, or a recreation space. . Close to the Beaver Lake walking trail and bird sanctuary, restaurants and shopping but with a world away feel.
